Dear Sir.

Would like to secure No. 3 of vol 24. whole number 127. ✓✓

Kindly advise me if you are able to supply it.

Would also appreciate information regarding the following.

At what date was the first twelve numbers of the American Journal reprinted? ?

Is it possible to secure the first twelve numbers in the original printing? Y

Could you advise me where to secure any of the first six volumes of The Numismatist. W

Thanking you in advance for the information, and trusting that you will be able to supply the above mentioned number.

Yours very truly.

Dear Sir:

Responding to your letter of the 14th, I am sorry to report that we cannot supply the number of our Journal you desire, Vol. 24, No. 3. I doubt that the first twelve numbers of the Journal ever were reprinted. They were issued in what was known as a large paper edition with wide margins, and I suspect that one of these large paper editions may have come your way. We can supply these twelve numbers unbound for $3.00.

I do not know where it will be possible for you to obtain any of the first six volumes of "The Numismatist" if you have already tried Mr. Charles C. Rood, 2164 McClellan Avenue, of your city. We recently sent him the few numbers of these years that were among our duplicates.

I hope this will give you the information you desire.

Very truly yours,

Secretary.
